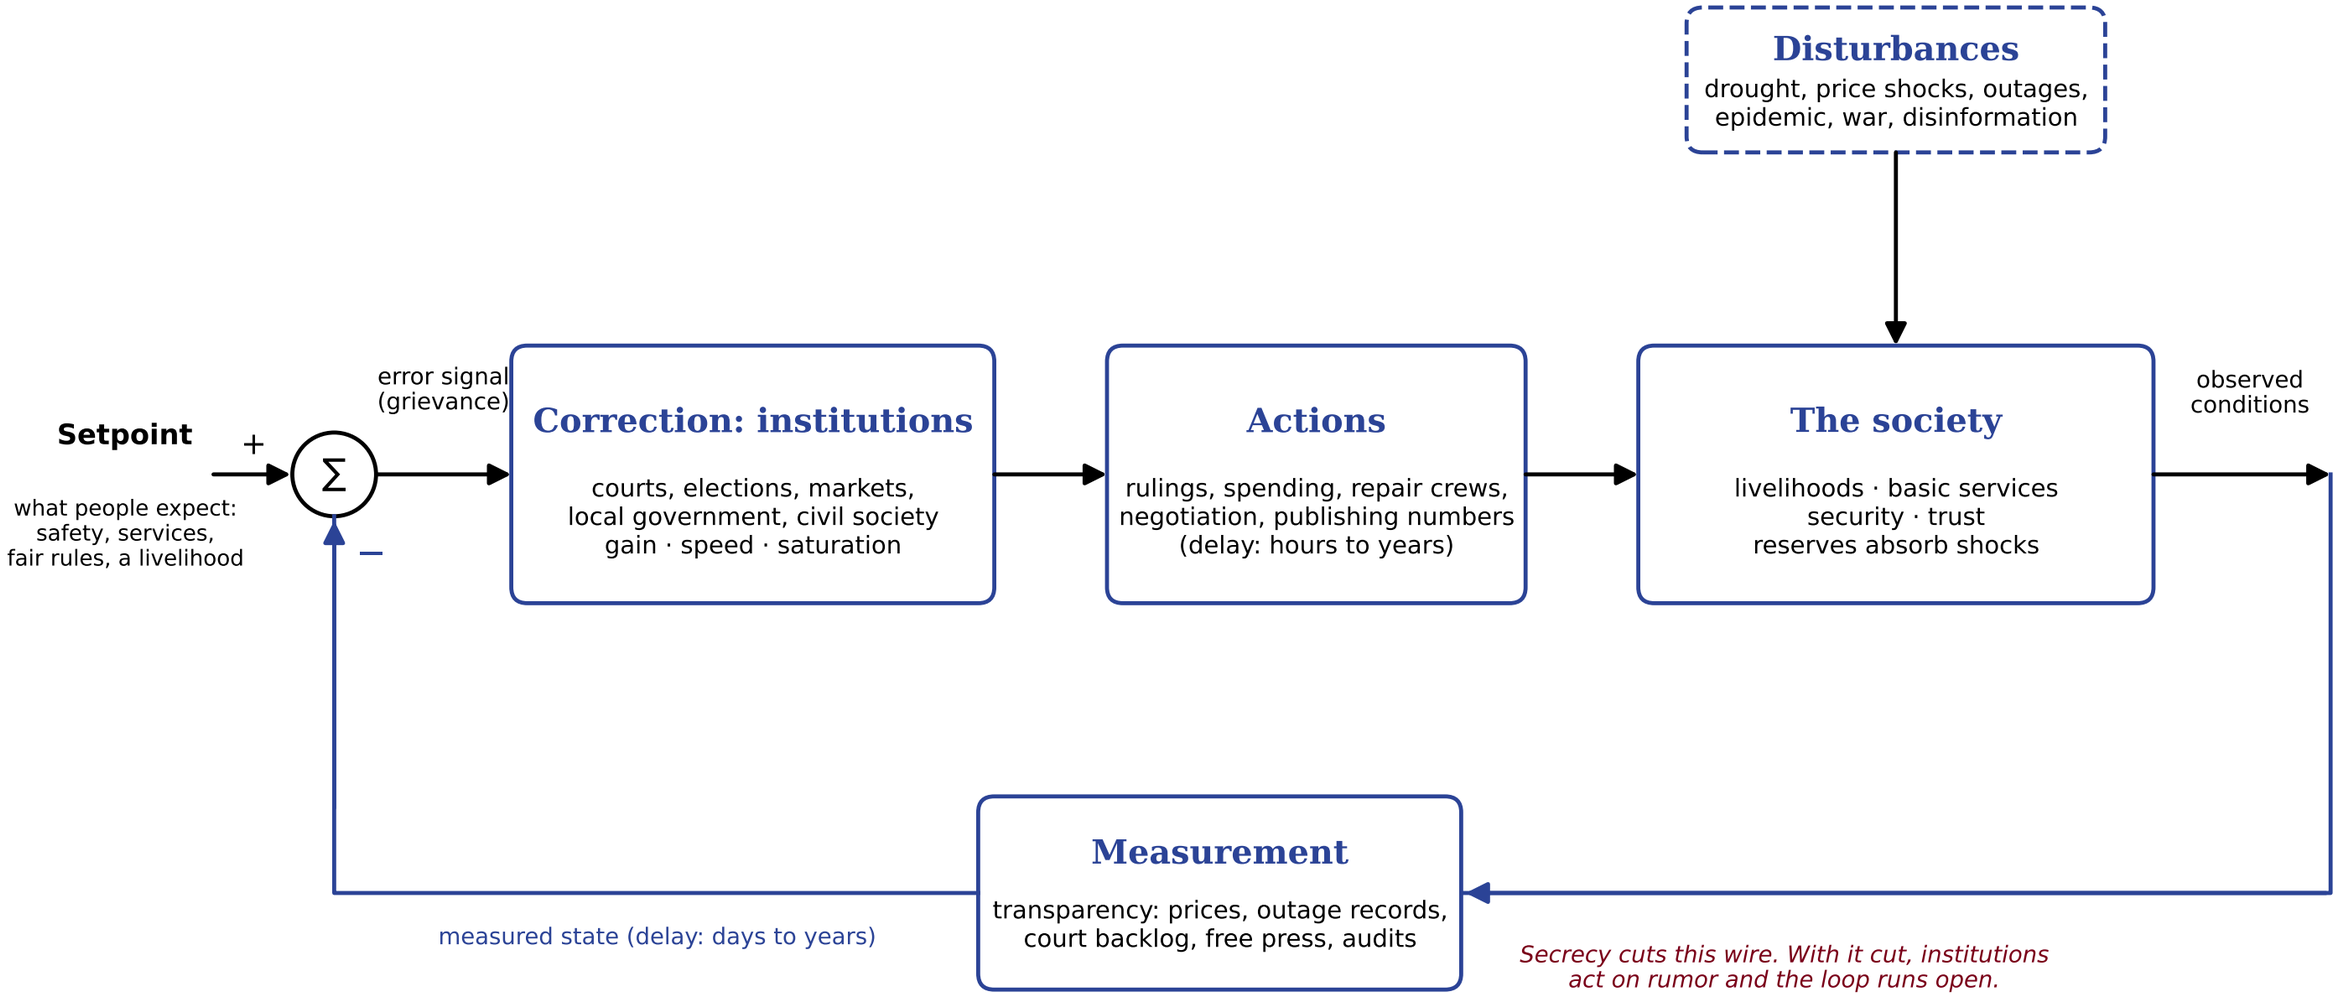
Peace as a feedback loop

The block diagram used for a power grid, with a society in place of the grid. Peace lasts while this loop closes faster than the disturbances arrive.



Stability conditions

1. The measurement must show the true state (transparency). 2. The correction must match the error: the penalty fits the offense, the aid fits the loss.
3. The loop must close faster than a shock spreads. 4. Reserves must last until it does.